HE WHO COMES IN
THE NAME OF THE LORD!”

Preparation

Note: Please silence all cell phones and other electronic equipment.

We focus our hearts and minds in preparation to enter into the life-giving presence of God.

"Most of us take [our] worries with us, in our laptops and mobile phones, wherever we go... 'Office closing time' never arrives. The once sacrosanct borderlines separating home from office... have all but been effaced, and so each and every moment of life becomes a moment of choice – a choice between career and moral obligations, work duties and the demands of all those people needing our time, compassion, care, help and succor." - Zygmunt Bauman

It is the easiest thing in the world to work all the time, compared to the incredible difficulty of spending one hour or one day of rest in a proper way. -Eugen Rosenstock-Huessy

It's not just that a countercultural embrace of sleep bears witness to values higher than 'the cares of this world, the deceitfulness of riches, and the desire for other things.' ... The unarguable demands that our bodies make for sleep are a good reminder that we are mere creatures, not the Creator. For it is God and God alone who "neither slumbers nor sleeps." Of course, the Creator has slept, another startling reminder of the radical humility he embraced in becoming incarnate. He took on a body that, like ours, was finite and contingent and needed sleep. To push ourselves to go without sleep is, in some sense, to deny our embodiment, to deny our fragile incarnations— and perhaps to deny the magnanimous poverty and self-emptying that went into his Incarnation.

Prelude

Leif Jentoft

Prayer (Collect) of Preparation:

*Deliver us when we draw near to You,
from coldness of heart and wanderings of mind:
Grant that with steadfast thoughts and kindled affections,
we may worship You in Spirit and in Truth. Amen*

Call to Worship

God calls his people to assemble for worship; accordingly the church calls itself together.

Call to Worship

Liturgist: Nathan Dicks

Leader: O God, you are our God, earnestly we seek you;

Congregation: Our souls thirst for you, our flesh faints for you,

All: In a dry and weary land where there is no water.

Leader: We have looked upon you in the sanctuary, beholding your power and your glory.

Congregation: Because your steadfast love is better than life, our lips will praise you.

Leader: We will bless you as long as we live, and in your name we will lift up our hands.

All: Our souls will be satisfied as with fat and rich food; and our mouths will praise you with joyful lips. — Psalm 63.1-5

Invocation

Jesus Lives

Words and Music: Kathryn Baldanza

1. Je-sus lives, Je-sus lives, the power of death is shat-tered, the
2. Je-sus lives, Je-sus lives, no more can sin o'er-take us. The lives and reigns as God who saves in the morn-ing.

le, Al-le-lu-ia, Al-le-lu-ia. Al-le, Al-le-lu-ia, Al-le-lu-ia.

God's people sing not only as an expression of our love for God but also to remind ourselves of our place in God's redemptive work.

The church is marked by its singing, from Israel's deliverance through the Psalms to our worship today.

Call to Confession

Leader: Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord!
O Lord, hear my voice!
Let your ears be attentive
to the voice of my pleas for mercy!
If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities,
O Lord, who could stand?
But with you there is forgiveness,
that you may be feared. — Psalm 130:1-4

Prayer of Confession

All: Remember your mercy, O Lord, and your steadfast love, for they have been from of old. Remember not the sins of our youth or our transgressions; according to your steadfast love remember us, for the sake of your goodness, O Lord! Good and upright is the Lord; therefore he instructs sinners in the way. For your name's sake, O Lord, pardon our guilt, for it is great. Turn to us and be gracious to us, for we are lonely and afflicted. The troubles of our hearts are enlarged; bring us out of our distresses. Consider our affliction and our trouble, and forgive all our sins. Amen. — *Psalm 25:6-8, 11, 16-18

Declaration of Absolution

Leader: The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit. God does not despise a broken and a contrite heart. Jesus said: "Whoever comes to me I will never drive away." The Lord is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations. May the Lord, who has begun this good work in us, bring it to completion in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. To those who repent and look to Jesus Christ for their salvation, the absolution of sins is effected in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Congregation: Amen.

Leader: Our help is in the name of the Lord,

Congregation: the Maker of heaven and earth.

Leader: O Lord, open our lips,

Congregation: and our mouths will declare your praise.

Leader: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Congregation: As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.

Call to Confession

In God's presence, the evil that mars our lives – corporate and individual – comes to light. Through Jesus Christ, we are safe to be honest about ourselves because we fear no condemnation.

Declaration of Absolution

God declares through his Church that everyone who repents and believes in Jesus Christ is completely forgiven from all their sins and their guilty consciences cleansed.

 So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ.
Romans 10.17

Sermon
 God has ordained the preaching of His Word to illuminate and apply the good news of Jesus Christ to our hearts that would remain dull and hard apart from the operation of His Holy Spirit.

At this time, we encourage children remaining in the service to make use of the Children's Sermon Worksheet to aid them in the teaching (available on the back table).

Lord's Supper

Fencing the Table

Minister: Our Savior Jesus Christ has ordained and instituted this Holy Supper to nourish and sustain those who are born again and grafted into his family: his church. Christ has instituted an earthly and visible bread as the sacrament of his body and wine as the sacrament of his blood.

All: Just as truly as we take and hold the sacraments in our hands and eat and drink them in our mouths, by which our life is then sustained, so truly we receive into our souls, for our spiritual life, the true body and true blood of Christ, our only Savior. We receive these by faith, which is the hand and mouth of our souls.

Minister: What is true faith?

All: True faith – created in me by the Holy Spirit through the gospel – is not only a knowledge and conviction that everything that God reveals in his Word is true, but also a deep-rooted assurance that not only others, but I too, have had my sins forgiven, have been made right with God, and have been granted salvation. These are gifts of sheer grace earned for us by Christ. – Adapted from *Heidelberg Catechism, Q&A 21

Minister: Do you have faith in Jesus Christ?

All: I believe in the Lord Jesus who undertook his office of mediator completely voluntarily. In order to discharge it, he was made under and perfectly fulfilled the law. He endured extremely severe torment in his soul and extremely painful suffering in his body. He was crucified and died. He was buried and remained under the power of death, but his body did not decay. On the third day he arose from the dead with the same body in which he had suffered and with which he also ascended into heaven. There he sits at the right hand of his Father, interceding for believers. He will return to judge men and angels at the end of the world. – Adapted from *Westminster Confession of Faith VII.4

Words of Institution

Prayer for Those Searching for Truth

Lord Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth, and the life. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open to me the reality of who you are. Grant that I might be unafraid of the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. Give me an understanding of you that is clear, convincing, and that leads to the life you promise. Amen

Prayer for Those Desiring to Trust in Jesus Christ for the First Time

Lord Jesus, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed. And I know that through you I am more loved & accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment on the cross, and providing forgiveness and new life. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord and desire to live a life of loving and serving you. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Suzana Perez, Gi Yoon Huang, Matt Stone, Nichole Stone*

Lord's Supper

God meets us not only in hearing the Word, but also in visible, tangible form – uniting us with himself spiritually by faith in Christ.

WELCOME

Christ the King is a multicultural church that seeks to build relationships between different language groups and bring reconciliation to them in obedience to the Word of God. To that end we are a multi-ethnic English-speaking congregation that meets in Cambridge on Sunday mornings (ctkcambridge.org) and a mostly Brazilian congregation meeting in Portuguese in Cambridge on Sunday evenings (presbiterianaboston.com) as well as congregations that meet in Dorchester, Newton, Pembroke, Roslindale and Jamaica Plain on Sunday morning/afternoon (ctkboston.org). We are excited to welcome our next community to the CTK family, with a church plant in the works in Somerville. As a multi-congregational church we seek to provide both autonomy and interdependency among the congregations.

There are many ways to get connected to CTK, including community groups, college Bible studies and more.

ADULT EDUCATION & SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES

Every Sunday morning at 9:15am, Christ the King offers classes for adults, youth and children. The topics of these classes reflect the desire of the church to equip its members with a better understanding of God's Word. Adult Education classes are held across the street at the Church Office (130 Prospect Street) and fellowship hall, Jr/Sr High Sunday School walks over together to the church office (130 Prospect Street), and children 2.5 years-6th grade are taught downstairs in the church building.

New Testament Survey:

We will do a fast-paced, high-level overview of the New Testament, to understand the context into which many of the well-known stories sit. Get a better feel for the chronology of the gospels and Acts, and the structure of a typical epistle. We'll spend two weeks digging into two of the largest epistles, and the class will close on May 25 with one lesson on the book of Revelation. It will be taught by Nathan Carter and a number of other CTK members in the fellowship hall.

Pilgrim Theology:

An introductory systematic theology class. We are picking back up from last fall and will continue discussing what the Bible teaches us about God, ourselves, and the great drama that we have been brought into as Christians. We will be working through the topics laid out by Michael Horton in his book, Pilgrim Theology. All are welcome. This class will meet in the Church Office and will be taught by Matthew Huskey (matthewdhuskey@gmail.com).

CHILDCARE ON SUNDAYS

Our nurseries are available throughout the service. The infant (0-12 months) nursery is upstairs through the doors to the right of the stage, while nurseries for 1, 2, and 3-year-olds are available downstairs (also through the door to the right of the stage). Children's church will begin after the passing of the peace and dismissal of children and is divided into two age groups: 4-5 years old in room 1 and 6-7 years old in room 2. There is also a listening area (with a partitioned off space for nursing mothers) in the social hall that will play the entire service for parents who need to take their children out of the service for any reason.

COMMUNITY GROUPS

The purpose of community groups at Christ the King is to provide a context for people to know the gospel of Jesus Christ more deeply and personally. We do this in all kinds of ways - by sharing meals and socializing together, studying together, praying together, and serving together, all with hope of living life in light of the gospel. We do this in a localized context, encouraging people to join the groups that are closest to where they live, with the hopes that we can love, pray for and serve our neighborhoods faithfully. Everyone is welcome to join a community group, whether you are a member of the Christ the King or not, a Christian or not. In our community groups, we are always striving to come to a fuller understanding of what it means to believe and live as a follower of Jesus Christ, so we look to our community groups as the perfect place to work out the implications of the gospel as we discuss our questions and struggles, and share our lives. For more information please contact the Church Office, office@ctkcambridge.org.
