

Christ the King Presbyterian Church

SUNDAY, JUNE 29, 2014
MORNING WORSHIP

99 Prospect Street, Cambridge, MA 02139
(617) 354-8341 www.ctkcambridge.org

Preparation

Note: Please silence all cell phones and other electronic equipment.

We focus our hearts and minds in preparation to enter into the life-giving presence of God.

It is a sad truth, but we have lost the faculty of giving lovely names to things. Names are everything. I never quarrel with actions. My one quarrel is with words. The man who could call a spade a spade should be compelled to use one. It is the only thing he is fit for. - Oscar Wilde

...[A] name is infinitely more than a means to distinguish one thing from another. It reveals the very essence of a thing, or rather its essence as God's gift. To name a thing is to manifest the meaning and value God gave it, to know it as coming from God and to know its place and function within the cosmos created by God. - Alexander Schmemmann

Prelude

Leif Jentoft

Prayer (Collect) of Preparation:

*Deliver us when we draw near to You,
from coldness of heart and wanderings of mind:
Grant that with steadfast thoughts and kindled affections,
we may worship You in Spirit and in Truth. Amen*

Call to Worship

God calls his people to assemble for worship; accordingly the church calls itself together.

Call to Worship

Liturgist: Nathan Carter

Leader: Oh give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever!

Congregation: Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom he has redeemed from trouble and gathered in from the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.

Leader: Some wandered in desert wastes, finding no way to a city to dwell in; hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted within them.

Congregation: Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress.

Leader: He led them by a straight way till they reached a city to dwell in.

All: Let them thank the Lord for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of men! For he satisfies the longing soul, and the hungry soul he fills with good things. — Psalm 107.1-9

Invocation

Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah

Words: William Williams;
Music: John Hughes

God's people sing not only as an expression of our love for God but also to remind ourselves of our place in God's redemptive work.

The church is marked by its singing, from Israel's deliverance through the Psalms to our worship today.

Call to Confession

Leader: If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. — 1 John 1.8-9

Prayer of Confession

All: Almighty and merciful God, we have erred and strayed from your ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against your holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. O Lord, have mercy upon us. Spare those who confess their faults. Restore those who are penitent, according to your promises declared to the world in Christ Jesus, our Lord. And grant, O merciful God, for his sake, that we may live a holy, just, and humble life to the glory of your holy name. Amen. — From the Book of Common Prayer

Declaration of Absolution

Leader: There is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. To those who repent and look to Jesus Christ for their salvation, the absolution of sins is effected in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Congregation: Amen

Leader: The Lord is merciful and gracious,

Congregation: slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness.

Leader: Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good,

Congregation: for his steadfast love endures forever.

Leader: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Congregation: As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.

Call to Confession

In God's presence, the evil that mars our lives – corporate and individual – comes to light. Through Jesus Christ, we are safe to be honest about ourselves because we fear no condemnation.

Declaration of Absolution

God declares through his Church that everyone who repents and believes in Jesus Christ is completely forgiven from all their sins and their guilty consciences cleansed.

Prayer of Response

Lord's Supper

Fencing the Table

Minister: Christ is spiritually present at this meal – at work through our confession. What do you believe?

All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

– Apostles' Creed

Words of Institution

Prayer for Those Searching for Truth

Lord Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth, and the life. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open to me the reality of who you are. Grant that I might be unafraid of the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. Give me an understanding of you that is clear, convincing, and that leads to the life you promise. Amen

Prayer for Those Desiring to Trust in Jesus Christ for the First Time

Lord Jesus, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed. And I know that through you I am more loved & accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment on the cross, and providing forgiveness and new life. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord and desire to live a life of loving and serving you. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

WELCOME

Christ the King is a multicultural church that seeks to build relationships between different language groups and bring reconciliation to them in obedience to the Word of God. To that end we are a multi-ethnic English-speaking congregation that meets in Cambridge on Sunday mornings (ctkcambridge.org) and a mostly Brazilian congregation meeting in Portuguese in Cambridge on Sunday evenings (presbyterianaboston.com) as well as congregations that meet in Dorchester, Newton, Pembroke, Roslindale and Jamaica Plain on Sunday morning/afternoon (ctkboston.org). We are excited to welcome our next community to the CTK family, with a church plant in the works in Somerville. As a multi-congregational church we seek to provide both autonomy and interdependency among the congregations.

There are many ways to get connected to CTK, including community groups, college Bible studies and more.

COMMUNITY GROUPS

The purpose of community groups at Christ the King is to provide a context for people to know the gospel of Jesus Christ more deeply and personally. We do this in all kinds of ways - by sharing meals and socializing together, studying together, praying together, and serving together, all with hope of living life in light of the gospel. We do this in a localized context, encouraging people to join the groups that are closest to where they live, with the hopes that we can love, pray for and serve our neighborhoods faithfully. Everyone is welcome to join a community group, whether you are a member of the Christ the King or not, a Christian or not. In our community groups, we are always striving to come to a fuller understanding of what it means to believe and live as a follower of Jesus Christ, so we look to our community groups as the perfect place to work out the implications of the gospel as we discuss our questions and struggles, and share our lives. For more information please contact the Church Office, office@ctkcambridge.org.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Note, there will be no 6 & 7 year-old Children's Church class today. Those children will remain in the service, but the 4's & 5's class would still be meeting.

There will be a Congregational Meeting for informational purposes today immediately following the service. All are welcome to attend!

Reader Update: There will be no weekly e-newsletter sent out on Wednesday, July 9. If you have any announcement or community ad requests please send them to the church office (office@ctkcambridge.org) prior to Monday, June 30.

CTK Cambridge will not be hosting a formal 4th of July BBQ at the church, but we encourage you to gather informally and celebrate together! There will be a group of CTK folks by the Charles River on the Cambridge side after 6pm to picnic and await the fireworks. A map of their exact location can be viewed on the church website (ctkcambridge.org), for more information please contact Elizabeth Snyder (snyder.em@gmail.com). All are welcome to join!

Get to know and encourage our CTK Roslindale family on July 6: All are invited to worship and share a meal with CTK Roslindale on Sunday, July 6, at 4:45pm. Your presence is a great encouragement to this newer congregation, especially during summer Sundays when attendance is low. It's also a great opportunity to see what God is doing in our church beyond Cambridge. If you are in town on July 6, please consider worshipping with CTK Roslindale. Traveling together can be arranged. Please email Rachel Thrasher (racheldenae@gmail.com) to RSVP or for more info.

This summer, women from CTK and their neighbors are invited to join a short Study of Kevin deYoung's book, "Taking God at His Word." The book addresses questions many of us ask: "Can we trust the Bible completely? Is it sufficient for our complicated lives? Can we really know what it teaches?" Please contact Rosemary Boyle (romaryboyle@gmail.com) or Lauren Easton (LEaston@gmail.com) for details about where we are meeting and how to get the book. Three discussion sessions at 7pm will place on the following dates: July 8th (Ch 1-2), July 15th (Ch 3-5) and July 22nd (Ch 6-8).

We are hoping to start up a Women's Fellowship Group in Davis Square. If you are interested in attending, please email either Cat Sherrill (bostonsherrill@gmail.com) or Emily DeBaun (emily.debaun@gmail.com) for more information.

The new CTK Boston website features stories to inform, connect, and encourage CTK members across all eight congregations. Check out the current stories and watch for new ones throughout each month at www.ctkboston.org. Are you willing to share a story of how the gospel is shaping your life? Email Elizabeth (elizabethsnyder@ctkboston.org) to learn more.

Online giving is here! Christ the King is now accepting general and deacon's fund offerings online through The City. If you have a City account, you can set up secure one-time and recurring donations using your debit card, credit card or bank account. Just log on at ctkboston.onthecity.org and select Giving from the menu on the left. If you don't have a City account, sign up today at ctkboston.onthecity.org/kiosk. Bulletins are now available on the church website (<http://www.ctkcambridge.org/sermons/>) each Wednesday before the service. This allows you to view the PDF in advance as well as download for use during the service on a smartphone or tablet.

Welcome visitors, please fill out a visitor card on the welcome table in the fellowship hall so we can get to know you better! If you would like more information about our church or community groups, contact the Church Office (office@ctkcambridge.org).

If you would like to receive our weekly electronic Reader with CTK's latest announcements please email office@ctkcambridge.org.
