SUNDAY, MAY 31, 2015
MORNING WORSHIP

99 Prospect Street, Cambridge, MA 02139
(617) 354-8341 www.ctkcambridge.org

Preparation

Note: Please silence all cell phones and other electronic equipment.

We focus our hearts and minds in preparation to enter into the life-giving presence of God.

But some one will ask, If the divine Being is incomprehensible, what is the good of the things you have been saying? Come now, am I not to take a reasonable drink because I cannot drink the river dry? Of course I cannot bear to fix my gaze upon the sun in its strength. But is that any reason for not glancing up at him if I need? ... I praise and glorify our Maker, seeing that 'Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord' is a divine command. I am now trying to glorify the master, not to expound his nature, for I know quite well that I shall fall far short even of glorifying him as he deserves. ... For the Lord Jesus comforts me for my insufficiency by saying, 'No man hath seen God at any time'. - Cyril of Jerusalem

... [T]he truth of the Holy Trinity is more to be adored than expressed. - T.F. Torrance

Prelude

Rachel Liao

Prayer (Collect) of Preparation:

*Deliver us when we draw near to You,
from coldness of heart and wanderings of mind:
Grant that with steadfast thoughts and kindled affections,
we may worship You in Spirit and in Truth. Amen*

Call to Worship

God calls his people to assemble for worship; accordingly the church calls itself together.

Call to Worship

Liturgist: Nathan Barczi

Leader: Seek the Lord while he may be found;

Congregation: Call upon him while he is near;

Leader: Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts;

Congregation: Let him return to the Lord, that he may have compassion on him,

All: And to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. — Isaiah 55.6,7 le, Al-le-lu-ia, Al-le-lu-ia. Al-le, Al-le-lu-ia, Al-le-lu-ia.

God's people sing not only as an expression of our love for God but also to remind ourselves of our place in God's redemptive work.

The church is marked by its singing, from Israel's deliverance through the Psalms to our worship today.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Words: Reginald Heber;
Music: John B. Dykes

The musical score is written for a piano accompaniment. It features a treble and bass clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The score is divided into four systems, each with four measures. Chord symbols are placed above the treble staff, and lyrics are placed below the treble staff. The lyrics are arranged in four lines, corresponding to the four systems. The first system includes four numbered lines of lyrics. The second system includes three lines of lyrics. The third system includes three lines of lyrics. The fourth system includes three lines of lyrics. The score ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

Call to Confession

Leader: "Come now, let us reason together," says the Lord:
"though your sins are like scarlet,
they shall be as white as snow;
though they are red like crimson,
they shall become like wool." — Isaiah 1:18

Prayer of Confession

All: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent, for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen. — From the Book of Common Prayer

Declaration of Absolution

Leader: We know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, so we also have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no one will be justified. For through the law we died to the law, so that we might live to God. To those who repent and look to Jesus Christ for their salvation, the absolution of sins is effected in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Congregation: Amen.

Leader: The Lord is merciful and gracious,

Congregation: slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness.

Leader: Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good,

Congregation: for his steadfast love endures forever.

Leader: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Congregation: As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.

Call to Confession

In God's presence, the evil that mars our lives – corporate and individual – comes to light. Through Jesus Christ, we are safe to be honest about ourselves because we fear no condemnation.

Declaration of Absolution

God declares through his Church that everyone who repents and believes in Jesus Christ is completely forgiven from all their sins and their guilty consciences cleansed.

Pastoral Prayer

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer

We cry out together for grace and mercy in a time of need.

Dismissal of Children & Passing of the Peace

Passing of the Peace

We remind each other of the peace given us in the gospel – peace first between us and God, leading to reconciled relationships with each other.

Scripture Reading

So faith comes from hear - ing, and hearing through the word of Christ.
Romans 10.17

Sermon

God has ordained the preaching of his Word to illuminate and apply the good news of Jesus Christ to our hearts that would remain dull and hard apart from the operation of his Holy Spirit.

At this time, we encourage children remaining in the service to make use of the Children's Sermon Worksheet to aid them in the teaching (available on the back table).

Scripture Reading

Lord's Supper

Fencing the Table

All: We believe in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. – from Philippians 2:5-11

Words of Institution

Minister: Beloved in the Lord Jesus Christ, the Holy Supper that we are about to celebrate is a feast of remembrance, of communion, and of hope. We come in remembrance that our Lord Jesus Christ was sent of the Father into the world to assume our flesh and blood and to fulfill for us all obedience to the divine law, even to the bitter and shameful death of the cross. By his death, resurrection, and ascension he established a new and everlasting covenant of grace and reconciliation, that we might be accepted of God and never be forsaken by him. We come to have communion with this same Christ, who has promised to be with us always, even to the end of the world. In the breaking of the bread he makes himself known to us as the true heavenly bread that strengthens us unto life eternal. In the cup of blessing he comes to us as the vine, in whom we must abide if we are to bear fruit. We come in hope, believing that this bread and this cup are a pledge and foretaste of the feast of love of which we shall partake when his kingdom has fully come, when with unveiled face we shall behold him, made like unto him in his glory.

All: Since by his death, resurrection, and ascension, Christ has obtained for us the life-giving Spirit, who unites us all in one body, so we are to receive this supper in true love, mindful of the communion of saints.

Prayer for Those Searching for Truth

Lord Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth, and the life. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open to me the reality of who you are. Grant that I might be unafraid of the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. Give me an understanding of you that is clear, convincing, and that leads to the life you promise. Amen

Prayer for Those Desiring to Trust in Jesus Christ for the First Time

Lord Jesus, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed. And I know that through you I am more loved & accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment on the cross, and providing forgiveness and new life. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord and desire to live a life of loving and serving you. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Jack Paar, Dorrie Paar, Robert Perez, Suzana Perez, Gi Yoon-Huang, Elizabeth Cantrell, Ryan Zhang, Abigail Zhang

Lord's Supper

God meets us not only in hearing the Word, but also in visible, tangible form – uniting us with himself spiritually by faith in Christ.

Note: Servers come forward.

Grape juice is available in the center of each wine tray and gluten-free bread on the right for those who desire such. Please hold the elements until all can partake together.*

WELCOME

Christ the King is a multicultural church that seeks to build relationships between different language groups and bring reconciliation to them in obedience to the Word of God. To that end we are a multi-ethnic English-speaking congregation that meets in Cambridge on Sunday mornings (ctkcambridge.org) and a mostly Brazilian congregation meeting in Portuguese in Cambridge on Sunday afternoons (presbyterianaboston.com) as well as congregations that meet in Dorchester, Newton, Pembroke, Roslindale, Jamaica Plain and Somerville (ctkboston.org). As a multi-congregational church we seek to provide both autonomy and interdependency among the congregations.

There are many ways to get connected to CTK, including community groups, college Bible studies and more.

WEEKLY ELECTRONIC NEWSLETTER

Visit ctkcambridge.org/ctk-reader/ to sign up for our weekly CTK Reader with notes from our pastors, church announcements and community classifieds. Please note this is one of the church's main means of communication throughout the week.

PRAYER MEETINGS

Morning Prayer: Tuesdays, 6:30am-8:30am for prayer at the church building in the social hall. Coffee and snacks are provided, if you have any questions please contact office@ctkcambridge.org.

Missions & Church Planting Prayer: On the first and third Sundays of the month, there is a time of prayer for the missionaries CTK Cambridge supports and for church planting in Boston. Please join us at the church office after the coffee hour around 12:10 pm. Contact laura.a.martin87@gmail.com.

SECOND SATURDAYS

A monthly gathering to connect with friends or make new ones. Events take place the second Saturday of each month at Mead Hall (4 Cambridge Center, Cambridge) from 5:30-7:30pm. Second Saturdays grew out of a desire to provide more opportunities to build community both in and outside of the church.

COLLEGE STUDENTS

College students are important to CTK. We support Reformed University Fellowship at MIT and Harvard. Get in touch with our ministers, Solomon Kim (solomon.kim@ruf.org, MIT) and Jeremy Mullen (jeremy.mullen@ruf.org, Harvard).

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP GROUPS

Men's fellowship groups meet throughout the city. Please feel welcome to participate in any of these groups. If you would like one started near you, email rickdowns@ctkcambridge.org. The aim is camaraderie and discipling - growing in the faith.

(p.greg.russell@gmail.com)

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP GROUPS

Women's Fellowship Groups are meeting throughout the city and exist to provide opportunities of fellowship, discipling and growing in faith with other women. Currently we have 5 groups throughout the city and we would welcome additional attendees if you would like to join in. If you want more general information or would like to start a group near you, please contact Cat Sherrill (bostonsherrill@gmail.com).

- Kendall: Meets weekly on Thursdays 7:30-8:30 am at Clover Restaurant in Kendall Square. Contact Laura Martin (lauraamartin87@gmail.com).
- Davis Square: Meets every other Thursday at 7:30 am at Renee's Café in Somerville. Contact Emily DeBaun (emily.debaun@gmail.com).
- Central Square: Meets weekly on Tuesdays 9:30-11:30 am in the CTK social hall for bible study. Childcare provided. Contact Leann Barczy (lbarczy@gmail.com) or Kelly Sawyer (bostonkelly@gmail.com).

ADULT EDUCATION & SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES

Every Sunday morning at 8:45am, Christ the King offers classes for adults, youth and children. The topics of these classes reflect the desire of the church to equip its members with a better understanding of God's Word. Adult Education classes are held in the social hall, Middle/High School meets in the office in the balcony of the church building, and children 2.5 years-5th grade are taught downstairs in the church building.

Hot Topics in the Church:

Beginning on Sunday, May 31, Christ the King will take a closer look at social, political and religious issues through the lens of our faith. The class will be taught by our pastoral staff and members of the church and will meet in the social hall. All are invited to join; if you have any questions or would like to suggest a specific topic please email rickdowns@ctkcambridge.org.

CHILDREN ON SUNDAYS

Children are always welcome in our service. Parents may opt to bring children to the programs below or to the social hall (upstairs rear) as needed where audio of the service plays and an area is partitioned for nursing mothers.

Nursery (0-3 years): Our nursery rooms provide safe care and are open throughout the service. Infants are upstairs and our 1's, 2's and 3's rooms are in the basement (exit through the right-side door for all rooms). Please sign your child in on the clipboard outside the room and take a visual pager number card.

Children's Church (4-7 years): Children are dismissed before the sermon to classes designed to engage God in a manner more suitable to young hearts and minds. Kids 4-5 years meet in room 1 and those 6-7 years in room 2 of the basement.

Children/Youth (8+ years): Our older children attend the entire service and a worksheet is provided to aid in the instruction during the sermon.

Parents may contact Dana for more information or to be added to our email list for Children's Ministry updates.

COMMUNITY GROUPS

The purpose of community groups at Christ the King is to provide a context for people to know the gospel of Jesus Christ more deeply and personally. We do this in all kinds of ways - by sharing meals and socializing together, studying together, praying together, and serving together, all with hope of living life in light of the gospel. We do this in a localized context, encouraging people to join the groups that are closest to where they live, with the hopes that we can love, pray for and serve our neighborhoods faithfully. Everyone is welcome to join a community group, whether you are a member of the Christ the King or not, a Christian or not. In our community groups, we are always striving to come to a fuller understanding of what it means to believe and live as a follower of Jesus Christ, so we look to our community groups as the perfect place to work out the implications of the gospel as we discuss our questions and struggles, and share our lives. ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please note the Deacons' Fund Offering will be collected TODAY.

The Boston Fellows is a nine-month fellowship for young professionals at CTK to cultivate the worldview, in prayer and in the community of the local church, necessary for meaningful vocation, in a cohort of peers, spiritual leaders, and professional mentors. The fellowship will begin in September. The application deadline has been extended to June 15. See www.BostonFellows.com to apply or for more information. Contact Nathan Barczy at nathan@ctkcambridge.org or 617-320-1346.

Sunday School teachers are needed for all ages during the summer months as we offer a break to those who have been teaching throughout the school year. Classes run Sundays from 8:45 – 9:50am for children aged 2 1/2 years through Middle/High School. Please consider volunteering even if you will be traveling over the summer as subs can be arranged as needed. Please contact Dana@ctkcambridge.org if you are willing to teach.

If you are an educator (or work in education) at CTK, you are invited to a dinner on Tuesday, June 2 at 7:00pm in the CTK Cambridge social hall. Come for an evening of food, fellowship and discussion to get to know your fellow educators throughout the CTK network. This event happens periodically throughout the year, with discussions of different topics each time; this quarter's discussion will address approaching and discussing current events with students. For more information or to RSVP, please contact nathan@ctkcambridge.org.

College students, there will be a college ministry this summer that will meet Tuesdays at 7pm starting June 2. All college students are welcome, and we will go through the book of Judges together. Contact our RUF pastors if you're interested or have questions.

There will be a Women's Ministry Meeting on June 6, 2015 from 2-3pm in Abigail Zhang's home 117 Auburn St. Medford, MA. Please email Abigail (abigail.r.zhang@gmail.com) if you need a ride.

Are you excited to reach out to families in your neighborhood? Consider hosting a "Backyard Bible Club" this summer in your community. Join us on Sunday, June 7, at 11:45am at the church office (130 Prospect St., Suite 201) for an informational meeting to learn more.

On the first and third Sundays of the month, there is a time of prayer for the missionaries CTK Cambridge supports and for church planting in Boston. Please join us next Sunday, June 7, around 12:10pm at the church office. Contact laura.a.martin87@gmail.com.

Women's ministry is hosting a summer fellowship group on Tuesday evenings beginning June 9th, at 7:30pm. We will be reading Orthodoxy by G.K. Chesterton. Orthodoxy is Chesterton's spiritual autobiography, sharing the ideas that paved the way for his faith in Christ. Rachel Thrasher will be hosting the group in her Somerville home. For an address, directions, and any other questions, contact Rosemary (romaryboyle@gmail.com) or Rachel (racheldenae@gmail.com).

Second Saturdays is a monthly gathering to connect with friends or make new ones. The next event will take place Saturday, June 13, 5:30- 7:30pm at Mead Hall (4 Cambridge Center, Cambridge). Drop in any time, bring friends, or meet new ones!

All parents and teachers are encouraged to attend a Children's Church ministry meeting on Sunday, June 14 after the service in the church office at 11:45am. Come hear about the new curriculum and exciting changes planned for the fall!

Christ the King accepts general and deacons' fund offerings online through The City. If you don't already have a login, visit <https://ctkboston.onthecity.org/kiosk/setup> to create an account and complete your profile. If you do have a login, visit <https://ctkboston.onthecity.org/login>. Click on the Giving menu, from where you can make online donations, track your giving, and more. Questions? Email giving@ctkboston.org.

Bulletins are available on the church website (<http://www.ctkcambridge.org/sermons/>) each Wednesday before the service. This allows you to view the PDF in advance as well as download for use during the service on a smartphone or tablet.

Welcome visitors, please fill out a visitor card on the welcome table in the social hall so we can get to know you better! If you would like more information about our church or community groups, contact the Church Office (office@ctkcambridge.org).
